1. What happened to Hawa's day when it didn't rain and the field turned dry?

2. If a child cannot go to school, what things might they miss?

3. How would you feel if someone made an important decision about your future without telling you?

4. Is it fair that someone's future can change because of the climate?

5. What would you say to Hawa if you could talk to her?
